

CHARACTER

Aziz

BACKGROUND

A charismatic guide for the Ministry of Antiques, Aziz is the key to unlocking Egypt's forgotten tombs. His 850K YouTube followers on @DesertTombGuide know him as a charming treasure hunter, but his work has a desperate purpose. After his family was disgraced and their historical artifacts unjustly seized, Aziz uses his tours and 'misplaced' relics to fund a secret war to restore his family's name. He streams his adventures live, balancing his public persona with a burning need for redemption. Personal Quest: To find the legendary "Sunstone of Amun," the artifact his family was accused of stealing, and use it to clear their name. Key Rival: Fahim Al-Jabri, a corrupt Ministry official who orchestrated his family's downfall and now watches his every move, waiting for him to slip up.
