BACKGROUND

With 950K Instagram followers, @ThirdEyeTransit's Orion Sagebrook maps the world's spiritual ley lines. His journey is fueled by grief. During a shared psychedelic ritual, his partner vanished before his eyes, an event he blames on a hostile spiritual entity. Now, he travels the globe, using his mystic insight and knowledge of ancient sites to find a way to bring them back from whatever plane they were taken to. His coffee snobbery and conspiracy theories hide a man tormented by loss. Personal Quest: To gather specific ritual components from three different continents to perform a "Calling" ritual on the next solstice to bring his partner back. Key Contact: A reclusive mystic known as "The Weaver," who communicates only through riddles and whose last message pointed him towards Egypt.
